ADOPTION CONNECT

FROM THE DESK OF SECRETARY (CARA)

“Adoption, whether domestic or international, serves children's interests better than any form of state-sponsored care. However in India, it is perceived as a cumbersome and complicated procedure. At CARA, we are proactively working towards changing this perception and increasing awareness about adoption through proposed innovative initiatives:

- ✦ By amending our Guidelines Governing Adoption of Children w.e.f. 01.08.2015.
- ✦ Use of IT to make adoption transparent and hassle-free through our upgraded CARINGS.
- ✦ Recently, we held one Master Training Programme and also other regional meetings.

We have initiated this Newsletter so that we are more in touch with each other and our readers have updated information on all our activities. Despite being a small organization we are striving hard to achieve our objectives in as transparent manner as possible. We request the help and co-operation of all our partners.”

Dr. Veerendra Mishra,
Member Secretary, CARA

“CARA and adoption are number one on my priority list. I have zero tolerance for delays in the process of adoption and we are continuously working towards bringing down the time taken in the adoption process to four months. Soon, we will have fostering coming in. We also have revamped CARINGS to make it more interactive. District Child Protection Units (DCPUs) are going to play a crucial role in the new system as the supporting agency to all the adoption agencies.”

Tara was adopted from India at the age of 3.5 years under CARA's inter-country adoption programme. She arrived in Ireland on the memorable Valentines' Day ten years ago. Since then she has brought immense joy to her parents. Tara recently made all of us proud with her stunning feat as she stood first in all Girls Youth at the Ocean to City River Rowing Race, a friendly race held as part of the Cork Harbour Festival, Ireland.

ADOPTION DIARY

"Adoption gave us a purpose to Live" : Bharath C J and Mandakini S B

It was first week of January 2012. Baby looked at my wife with a deep sharp look without much blinking. She kept on looking. Tears of joy filled our eyes. That look changed our lives forever!

She was nearly a four-month baby, wrapped from head to toe, brought in front of us by a social worker at the adoption agency. The first look of the baby gave us all the happiness we had ever longed for. Today she is growing with us as our proud daughter Ambhrini. We wish for nothing more in this life, from God.

With the blessings of elders we got married in June 2002. Both of us are from middle class South Indian families. After few years of marriage, when my wife did not conceive, we consulted few fertility experts in Bangalore. We spent a fortune on procedures, which resulted in nothing but pain, suffering, huge body changes due to artificial injections of hormones and financial loss.

Thanks to the support from our elders, family and friends we decided to adopt a baby. We registered for adoption with an agency in Bangalore. We were very anxious as there was no child to match with us. We were suggested to look for availability of baby from other agencies.

When we contacted another agency, we got positive vibes. The Authorities asked us to send documents and within next few months we got information that a legally free baby was available for adoption. Our Home Study was done by a Bangalore based adoption agency. On completing the documentation part, we were asked to come and visit agency to take a look at the baby.

We reached there in the first week of 2012. The team was very supportive and helped us to go through Medical Examination, Court procedures and rest of the formalities. In third week of January, we were given our dream, our baby on foster care and we travelled back to Bangalore with all the happiness in the world. In April 2012, we again travelled to complete adoption registration. Ambhrini is a very intelligent, sensitive and wonderful baby. She is very quick to learn and is very playful twenty four hours a day.

We sincerely thank CARA and its entire team from the bottom of our hearts for giving us a purpose to live!
