Dear Shri Parida,

As you are aware, the Ministry of Women and Child Development has introduced a centrally sponsored scheme, namely, Integrated Child Protection Scheme (ICPS) in 2009-10 under which financial assistance is provided to the State Governments/ UT Administrations for setting up and maintenance of statutory bodies, homes/institutions under the JJ Act and also for setting up of State and District Child Protection Societies, etc. As per the Scheme, financial assistance was envisaged to be released in two instalments to State Child Protection Societies (SCPS). Both the Ministry and the concerned State Government/UT Administration were to transfer their respective share of funds directly to the bank account of the SCPS. The MoU for implementation of ICPS signed by your State with the Ministry accordingly incorporates this provision.

The fund flow mechanism under the Scheme has been re-considered by the Ministry and it has been decided that the Central share of grants-in-aid under ICPS will be released to the State Governments/UT Administrations who in turn will release the entire amount (the Central share as well as the State's share) of grants-in-aid to the SCPS.

With regards,

Yours sincerely,

Preeti Madan
